

PROGENY OF ASMUSSEN STALLIONS ARE WINNING ALL OVER THE COUNTRY!

2010 Fee: $1,500

Standing at Whispering Oaks Farm in Carencro, Louisiana

INTIMIDATOR

Gone West – Colonial Play, by Pleasant Colony

One of the leading second-crop stallions in Louisiana, INTIMIDATOR has sired nine winners from 11 starters (82%), including Intimidating Woman, who easily won her 2-year-old debut at Churchill Downs! He is also the sire of recent Lone Star Park maiden winners Simply Gone (won first time out) and Powerfully (won by nearly six lengths). Watch for I B an Intimidator to run in the TTA Sales Futurity on June 5.

Intimidating Woman coasts home after a win against $50,000 maiden claiming company at Churchill Downs!

PRIMAL STORM

Storm Boot – Primistal, by Stalwart

Grade 3 winner PRIMAL STORM is far and away the leading freshman sire in Texas and the #2 freshman sire in North America! He already has a stakes winner with LADY PRIMAL, who won the $50,000 Manor Downs Futurity and is qualified to the TTA Sales Futurity on June 5, plus he is the sire of Primal Point, who has a win and a second in two starts at Churchill Downs, and Far too Primal, who won his first time out against special weights at Lone Star on May 29.

Standing at Asmussen Horse Center in Laredo, Texas

2010 Fee: $1,500

HECKLE

Hennessy – Bid Me Adieu, by Spectacular Bid

HECKLE, a Grade 3 winner at Belmont Park, is off to a fast start at stud and has already sired four winners, including Syndi's Tease (three wins and earnings of $34,090 in Florida). HECKLE is also the sire of New York winner Destiny Road and West Virginia winner Laughter's Joy.

Standing at Le Mesa Stallions in Carencro, Louisiana

2010 Fee: $1,500

SENECA JONES

Alydar – Tiffany Lass, by Bold Forbes

A perennial leading sire in Texas and throughout the Southwest, SENECA JONES has sired the earners of more than $5 million, including 22 stakes horses.

He has nearly 50 2-year-old winners to make him one of the top juvenile sires in Texas and his pedigree is unmatched in the region!

Standing at Asmussen Horse Center in Laredo, Texas

2010 Fee: $1,500